

Escape to your island Hyde-away

Lower Hyde near Shanklin on the Isle of Wight is the first of two luxury lodge developments on the Isle of Wight for UK holiday park operators Park Resorts Ltd. The other location is in progress at Thorness Bay, near Cowes.

Deckhouses are awaiting delivery to the island shortly. Selected by the Park Resorts team for their stylish, spacious accommodation, very high specification and contemporary design, the Wessex lodges are meeting the expectations of an increasingly sophisticated holiday home buyer. Park Resorts have acknowledged this shift in consumer demand and are responding accordingly by introducing the Signature Lodge brand and providing an alternative holiday lifestyle to that currently provided by their family holiday parks. To find out more about the lodges at Lower Hyde visit www.signaturelodges.com or call 0871 310 4327.

The UK's second largest holiday park operator is now entering the luxury lodge market by introducing a new brand - Signature Lodges by Park Resorts. Many of the lodges chosen for their developments are manufactured by Dorset-based Wessex Homes Group and are being launched into their highly successful Lower Hyde and Thorness Bay resorts.

The Isle of Wight has been a popular holiday destination since the days when Queen Victoria began to holiday at Osborne House near Cowes. Despite the number of holidaymakers who now visit the island, it has retained its warmth, charm and intimacy, making it a popular choice for all ages.

The Signature Lodges at Lower Hyde are sited on an exclusive gated development adjacent to the existing Holiday Park, just half a mile from the beautiful sandy beaches at Shanklin. As well as the tranquillity and beautiful location of the Signature development, lodge owners are entitled to enjoy all the benefits of the Park Resorts experience close by: recreational facilities, entertainment and a beautiful location. The new Wessex lodges provide holiday home buyers with a rare opportunity to own a luxurious second holiday home on a much sought after holiday island that can be reached without having to brave an airport queue.

Wessex lodges at Lower Hyde so far include a 42 x 20ft Milbourne Contemporary and two 40 x 20ft Milbourne Classics. A further Milbourne Contemporary and two
